

TWO BODIES FROM SUNKEN SUB FOUND

DEBT NEGOTIATIONS NEAR SHOWDOWN AT SESSIONS

Caillaux Must Sail Soon Although Negotiators Have Not Completely Bridged the Gap Between Both Interests

Washington, Sept. 29.—The Franco-American debt negotiations were close to the showdown stage today.

Joseph Caillaux, the French finance minister, is due to start for home in about 48 hours, and there is still considerable distance between the position taken by the American commissioners and the position clung to by the French.

The week's pulling and hauling offer and counter offer, has seen the wide chasm between the American and French viewpoints successfully bridged, but still not enough to bring any signatures on any dotted lines.

"We are closer together than we ever were but it cannot truthfully be said that an agreement is in sight," said one member of the American commission.

Despite this seeming impasse confidence continued to be expressed by both French and American spokesmen that an accord would be reached before Thursday night, although whether there will be any signing of papers appeared at least doubtful. It was suggested in some quarters that M. Caillaux might reach an informal agreement and leave it thus, as he did with the Winston Churchill in London. The Americans, however, would rather bring the fountain pens into play. The French have been "unofficial" and "informal" for five years concerning their $4,000,000,000 debt.

While neither side will state precisely where the hitch lies, it is understood that there are still two main points of difference in the pathway of an agreement. They are:

1.—The size of the annual payments France should make during the sixty-two years allotted for liquidation. M. Caillaux is strenuously opposing any payments in excess of $100,000,000 a year. The Americans believe France can and should pay approximately $150,000,000 after a "breathing spell" of ten years to permit reorganization of the French budgetary and tax system.

2.—An "out" clause in the agreement for France, under which "if conditions arise which France cannot control" the agreement automatically becomes subject to revision—downward. Stripped of its cumbersome phraseology this means that if at any time in the next 62 years Germany falls down in her reparations payments, or France decides to engage in a new war, the debt agreement goes by the board.

Paris, Sept. 29.—M. Caillaux, French finance minister, has made his last concession in the debt negotiations with the United States, according to the Parisian press.

Caillaux has given the United States debt funding commission his final proposal, insofar as the amount

Cincinnati, Sept. 29.—The somewhat lurid affairs of George Remus, Cincinnati's so-called bootleg king, took a turn in his favor yesterday when he obtained a modification of an injunction which hitherto has prevented him from entering the doors of the Remus mansion, 255 Hermosa Avenue.

The injunction was granted to his wife, Mrs. Imogene Remus because, she said, she feared he would do her bodily harm. In her divorce suit filed several weeks ago she charged that he struck her when she visited him at the federal penitentiary at Atlanta. Since his return to Cincinnati, Remus has sought to have the injunction dissolved and succeeded yesterday when Mrs. Remus gave her consent through her attorney.

Columbus, Sept. 29.—Asking for dismissal of the pro of the McKinney Steel Company, Cleveland, the Wheeling and Lake Erie Railroad Company today filed an answer with the state utilities commission denying that it was charging unreasonable or illegal freight rates on pig iron shipments out of Cleveland. The McKinney company charged that Ohio railroads were discriminating in favor of pig iron shipments out of Toledo.

Logan, O., Sept. 28.—A headless skeleton found in a cornfield north of here late yesterday furnished authorities with an absorbing mystery today. A revolver lay beside the skeleton. A revolver lay beside the remains are working on the theory that the remains may be those of William Springer, 55, of Kalamazoo, Mich., whose abandoned car was found within a few hundred yards of the skeleton on August 16 last.

Shanghai, Sept. 29.—The entire Chinese telegraph system was paralyzed by a strike of operators today. No messages were being received for transmission at more than four hundred stations.

London, Conn., Sept. 29.—The body of William C. Teschamacher has been recovered from the hulk of the submarine S-51, it was announced at 11:15 at the local naval base.

It was the second body discovered since the disaster. Teschamacher had a twin brother aboard, Frederick T., who is among the missing.

Teschamacher's home is listed at 139 South Second Street, Bangor, Pa., the family coming originally from Indianapolis.

His rank is seaman first class.

New London, Conn., Sept. 29.—The body of John L. Gibson, engineer first class on the S-51 was found today according to a statement given out by Lieutenant Commander Flanigan at the New London base. He made the statement upon receipt of a message from Admiral H. H. Christy in charge of the work of salvage. Gibson's body was the first discovered among the 34 missing men who went to the bottom when the S-51 was rammed by the City of Rome, 15 miles off Block Island last Friday night.

Gibson's body was found in the battery room by one of the divers and brought to the surface. News of the discovery was flashed to the naval base here.

Lieutenant Commander Flanigan said the report indicated the battery room was flooded, removing almost the last remaining hope that life exists aboard the doomed vessel. It was in the battery room that the salvagers expected to find survivors.

The discovery of Gibson's body, Lieutenant Commander Flanigan said, "indicates that the divers are going through the hull and removing what bodies they may find. It is probable that other bodies already have been brought to the surface but have not been identified as yet."

"I would regard the news just received as of the most discouraging we have had."

Lieutenant Commander Flanigan would not say, however, that he regarded the latest development as conclusive evidence that all life was extinct below.

The widow of Gibson lives in New London and a special deputy was sent to break the sad news at the Gibson home.

New London, Conn., Sept. 29.—Owing to a freshening of the wind off Block Island and the consequent high seas this morning, the wreckers Monarch and Century were sent to Newport and the attempt to lift the hulk of the S-51 was abandoned temporarily for the second time in the last two days.

Diving operations were resumed in an effort to ascertain the exact condition of the submarine. This, however, meant a further delay in reaching the thirty-four men imprisoned below, upward of seventy hours having elapsed since the craft took its final plunge on Friday night.

The appearance of the Monarch being towed into Newport harbor caused a report to be broadcast from there that the S-51 had been raised and was being brought into port. It alike raised the hopes of the naval and civil residents of the famous resort only to have the inevitable last down set in.

News of this latest blow to the work of human salvage was transmitted from the scene of action by Admiral H. H. Christy on the mother ship Camden.

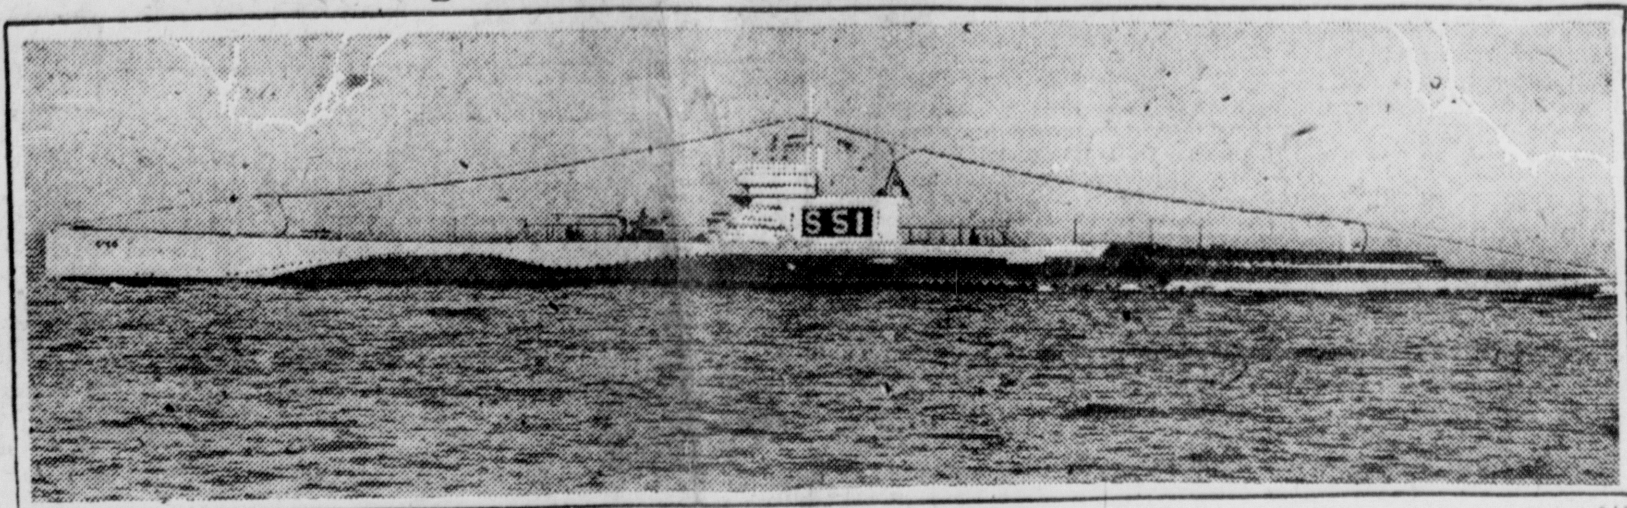

As pointed out by Lieut. Commander Flanigan in charge of the local base, it meant that hope of saving the lives of the thirty-four victims, a hope that has been waning with each passing hour, now was almost extinct. The divers merely could nose about and investigate conditions, he declared. They could not rectify them.

Even this work it was pointed out, would be handicapped considerably by the heavy seas and fear was expressed that the divers would not be able to enter the hulk, as planned, owing to the great strain on their lines from above.

"They will be all right once they get well below the surface," Lieut. Commander Flanigan said. "There is no motion or very little, thirty feet down but the difficulty will come in handling them properly from above. However, we'll have to take our chances on that. If anything is to be done to save those lives we still believe exist in the motor compartment it will have to be done soon or not at all."

Shelby, O., Sept. 29.—John Boyce, of Shelby easily walks away with the string bean belt. Boyce, brought a giant string bean to the editorial sanctum of the Daily Globe. The editor measured it himself and it was 23 5/8 inches long. "I wouldn't have believed it if I had not seen and measured it myself," said the editor. The bean is now on display in a window of the Globe company here.

Fatal Sinking of Submarine S-51 in Underwater Crash Probed

Official Navy probes are in progress to determine the liability for the accident off Block Island, near Providence, R. I., that cost the lives of the crew of the U. S. Submarine S-51. The craft, shown above, was smashed and sunk while submerged, by the steamship City of Rome.

NEAR ARREST IN TONG MURDER

BANDITS KILL ONE TO GET CASH

DIFFERENT COURSE MIGHT HAVE SAVED SHENANDOAH WRECK

Officer On Board Says He Advised Southerly Route

Lakehurst, N. J., Sept. 29.—That a different course from that taken by Commander Zachary Lansdowne would have "possibly" saved the terrible Shenandoah from her fatal crash was testified to today by Lieut. Joseph B. Anderson, aerologist officer aboard the airship, before the naval court of inquiry investigating the disaster.

Lieut. Anderson said he had advised Commander Lansdowne to take a southerly course when first indications of the storm appeared but that the commander continued to fly due west.

"You believe that a southeastern course instead of west would have allowed the Shenandoah a better chance to escape the storm's destruction?" Anderson was asked.

"Yes," he replied. "It was a 'cyclonic storm, which broke the big dirigible in two,' according to Anderson, telling his story as 'weather officer' aboard the Shenandoah.

"I noticed a few flashes of lightning directly north. I told Captain Lansdowne I thought we should turn south although there was nothing in the sky directly overhead. The captain and I discussed the situation but as neither could see any immediate danger, he decided that he would continue the prescribed course and would do so until some definite danger threatened us."

The witness said the first trouble encountered was when the ship began to rise.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

Chauffeur Murdered And Messenger Wounded When $10,200 Payroll Is Stolen as It Was Being Delivered At Plant.

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 29.—Edward Ross, Central Trust Company chauffeur, is dead and Rufus Johnson, messenger, is severely wounded and a payroll of $10,200 is missing after an attack by bandits as the bank employees were entering the Ward Baking Company plant here today.

William O'Toole, Johnson's guard, told of the bank's car drawing up to the bakery and of Johnson's entry. Just as he reached the door, three men with drawn guns held him up. Hitting Johnson over the head with a gun butt they seized the money bag. The bandits shot him in the chest.

The robbers escaped in a waiting car, which had another man at the wheel.

Still on the Cob

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

DEMAND OF CHINESE FOR RESIGNATION OF OFFICIAL IGNORED

Also Want Apology From City For Loss of Business

Cleveland, O., Sept. 29.—Police today were searching for two Chinese in connection with the hatchet murder of Yee Chook, young Chinese waiter, and had already arrested a suspect pointed to by other Chinese as Yee's slayer as the mystery neared solution today.

The young Chinaman was found in a small upstairs room in a building in Cleveland's Chinatown, his head almost severed and a hatchet and meat cleaver lying nearby.

Meanwhile city officials said they would ignore Chinese demands for the resignation of Safety Director Barry who ordered all Cleveland's Chinese brought in for examination following the hatchet murder. The Chinese, in a mass meeting, also decided to demand an apology from the city for closing their places of business and halting them into jail.

Other demands were recompense for loss incurred by closing of their businesses and destruction of the records and fingerprints taken when they were grouped into city prison and questioned.

Dr. Clarence Kuangson Young, secretary of the Chinese legation, is investigating the city's action against local Chinese and while he said his country had made no demands, he expressed hope that Cleveland's city administration would rectify the error. Eight Chinese face deportation. They will come before United States Commissioner Monahan October 14.

Will Brave Sea in Thirty Foot Boat

Plymouth, Eng., Sept. 29.—Undaunted by terrors of the sea in winter, William Unitt, retired naval seaman is about to start with his fifteen year old daughter on a 14,000 mile voyage to New Zealand in a thirty foot motor boat.

Unitt has bought land in New Zealand and he and his daughter prefer to go to their new home in a motor boat rather than in a liner.

The Merganser, Unitt's motor boat, is equipped with a fourteen horse power coal-oil burning engine. She has a twenty-two-foot cabin and a wireless set.

Unitt hopes to make the voyage in four months.

Chinese Fire on American Vessel

Shanghai, Sept. 29.—A message from the upper Yangtze river today reports that Chinese troops fired upon the American steamer Chi Chuen.

The vessel was enroute from Ichang to Chungking and was struck by more than 200 bullets, the report said.

One person was wounded, according to the advices here, but the name of the wounded person was not given.

The gunboat Palos has been dispatched to convoy the Chi Chuen.

Husband of Slain Prohibition Leader Held for Perjury in Probe of Murder

Vinton, Iowa, Sept. 29.—Clifford B. Cook, husband of Mrs. Myrtle Cook, prohibition leader, who was shot to death in her home here is under bonds of $10,000 today on charges of perjury as the climax of several weeks investigation of his wife's murder.

He was arrested after comparison of the stories which he told state agents and before the coroner's jury was held today.

showed marked discrepancies, according to Sheriff Whitfield Ruhl.

Cook first denied that he had seen any one he knew on the Sunday of his wife's murder but later admitted that he had spent most of the day with Mrs. Marie Stieling, who has confessed friendly relations with him.

Mrs. Stieling is held in custody under grand jury subpoena.

Cook's preliminary hearing was to be held today.

CHOPPY SEA FORCES WORKERS TO ABANDON RAISING OF VESSEL

Recovery of Bodies Shatters Hopes Any Are Still Alive

New London, Conn., Sept. 29.—The body of William C. Teschamacher has been recovered from the hulk of the submarine S-51, it was announced at 11:15 at the local naval base.

It was the second body discovered since the disaster. Teschamacher had a twin brother aboard, Frederick T., who is among the missing.

Teschamacher's home is listed at 139 South Second Street, Bangor, Pa., the family coming originally from Indianapolis.

His rank is seaman first class.

New London, Conn., Sept. 29.—The body of John L. Gibson, engineer first class on the S-51 was found today according to a statement given out by Lieutenant Commander Flanigan at the New London base. He made the statement upon receipt of a message from Admiral H. H. Christy in charge of the work of salvage. Gibson's body was the first discovered among the 34 missing men who went to the bottom when the S-51 was rammed by the City of Rome, 15 miles off Block Island last Friday night.

Gibson's body was found in the battery room by one of the divers and brought to the surface. News of the discovery was flashed to the naval base here.

Lieutenant Commander Flanigan said the report indicated the battery room was flooded, removing almost the last remaining hope that life exists aboard the doomed vessel. It was in the battery room that the salvagers expected to find survivors.

The discovery of Gibson's body, Lieutenant Commander Flanigan said, "indicates that the divers are going through the hull and removing what bodies they may find. It is probable that other bodies already have been brought to the surface but have not been identified as yet."

"I would regard the news just received as of the most discouraging we have had."

Lieutenant Commander Flanigan would not say, however, that he regarded the latest development as conclusive evidence that all life was extinct below.

The widow of Gibson lives in New London and a special deputy was sent to break the sad news at the Gibson home.

New London, Conn., Sept. 29.—Owing to a freshening of the wind off Block Island and the consequent high seas this morning, the wreckers Monarch and Century were sent to Newport and the attempt to lift the hulk of the S-51 was abandoned temporarily for the second time in the last two days.

Diving operations were resumed in an effort to ascertain the exact condition of the submarine. This, however, meant a further delay in reaching the thirty-four men imprisoned below, upward of seventy hours having elapsed since the craft took its final plunge on Friday night.

The appearance of the Monarch being towed into Newport harbor caused a report to be broadcast from there that the S-51 had been raised and was being brought into port. It alike raised the hopes of the naval and civil residents of the famous resort only to have the inevitable last down set in.

News of this latest blow to the work of human salvage was transmitted from the scene of action by Admiral H. H. Christy on the mother ship Camden.

As pointed out by Lieut. Commander Flanigan in charge of the local base, it meant that hope of saving the lives of the thirty-four victims, a hope that has been waning with each passing hour, now was almost extinct. The divers merely could nose about and investigate conditions, he declared. They could not rectify them.

Even this work it was pointed out, would be handicapped considerably by the heavy seas and fear was expressed that the divers would not be able to enter the hulk, as planned, owing to the great strain on their lines from above.

"They will be all right once they get well below the surface," Lieut. Commander Flanigan said. "There is no motion or very little, thirty feet down but the difficulty will come in handling them properly from above. However, we'll have to take our chances on that. If anything is to be done to save those lives we still believe exist in the motor compartment it will have to be done soon or not at all."

Shelby, O., Sept. 29.—John Boyce, of Shelby easily walks away with the string bean belt. Boyce, brought a giant string bean to the editorial sanctum of the Daily Globe. The editor measured it himself and it was 23 5/8 inches long. "I wouldn't have believed it if I had not seen and measured it myself," said the editor. The bean is now on display in a window of the Globe company here.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

They grow 'em large and big on the granite hills of New Hampshire, judging by some of the corn exhibits at the Fall fairs.

PERFECT LETTER OF LOVE CONTRIBUTED BY COLLEGE STUDENT

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 29.—At last the perfect love letter has been discovered.

This precious note was framed, after real mental stress, by two students at the Technology Summer surveying camp at East Machias.

The two Tech students were ably assisted by a former Harvard student, also at East Machias.

HARVARD MAN ON JOB

Out of his greater experience and keener knowledge of love and girls and such, the ex-Harvard man wrote what is considered the meat of the letter.

Twenty-five mimeograph copies were made for distribution in the surveying camp. The letter is so framed as to be sent to almost any girl. Here it is:

"Thank you so much for your nice, new letter. You don't know how we appreciate news here at the camp, and your letter arrived just in time to rescue me from the slough of despondency."

"We have been having rainy, fine, warm weather for the past—days (words not used should be 'X' out on the typewriter). We have (not) been very busy since I wrote you last. As a result, I have been feeling quite rested (exhausted). I have been spending my spare time canoeing, playing ball, sheiking, hiking and picking black-blue-rasp-berries."

"Just think, dear, only—days of camp, and I am counting the hours until I see you again. Imagine me sitting alone watching the beautiful sunset, moonlight over the lake every evening. Then after my subconscious self has reached your plane, and I feel that I am vibrating to your moods, I retire and drop off into peaceful dreams, sweetened by thoughts of you."

"Sincerely yours, Affectionately yours, Yours devoted."

ACCIDENT VICTIM STILL IN CRITICAL CONDITION IS SAID

George Rugman, Fairfield Pike, still remains in a critical condition at Miami Valley Hospital, Dayton, suffering from a fractured skull, sustained Sunday when an automobile in which he was riding with H. C. Layman, 304 West Third Street, Dayton, collided with an auto occupied by six Antioch college students on the Dayton and Xenia Pike near Alpha.

Rugman has never regained consciousness since the accident and little hope is held for his recovery.

Local authorities received their first word of the accident when a nurse at Miami Valley Hospital notified Deputy Sheriff John Baughn by telephone, asking him to break the news to Rugman's mother, Mrs. William Fiste, of Fairfield Pike. Mrs. Fiste and her daughter were taken to the hospital.

EXTENSION COURSE WILL OPEN MONDAY

The Greene County extension course, for all teachers who are desiring credits during the school year, will begin next Monday, October 5, at 8 p. m., under the direction of Dr. B. H. Scudder, Miami University, Oxford.

The course will be conducted in the offices of County Superintendent H. C. Aultman. All teachers who are interested in the course are urged to report to arrange for the course. The schedule will be arranged to suit the majority of teachers, according to Superintendent Aultman.

YELLOW SPRINGS

Mr. Thomas J. Ridenour died Friday morning at his home on Walnut Street, after a two weeks' illness caused by a paralytic stroke. Mr. Ridenour was 78 years of age. He is survived by his widow and four daughters, Mrs. Herbert Tschudy of Brooklyn, New York, Mrs. Dix McArthur of Pittsburgh, Pa., Mrs. John Ozias of New Madison, O., and Mrs. Edna Pontius of Dayton. The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian Church Saturday afternoon conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. H. White. Interment in the Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Downey, aged 85, wife of Thomas Downey, died at her home Wednesday afternoon. She is survived by her husband and son Gates Downey. Funeral services were held at the residence Friday morning conducted by Dr. B. F. Clayton and Rev. J. P. Williams. Interment in Glen Forest Cemetery.

The one hundredth anniversary of the Miami Township Schools will be held on the Mills Lawn Thursday. A splendid program has been prepared consisting of music and speaking. Dusty Miller of Wilmington will be one of the speakers. The ladies of the Parent-Teachers Association will serve dinner at noon. The business places will close for a few hours so all will have an opportunity to join in this celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Kelly very kindly donated their services and pictures taken while touring through the Holy Land to be used at the Opera House Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Public Library. The Library Association appreciate Mr. and Mrs. Kelly's interest in the Yellow Springs Library.

The ladies of St. Paul Church will give a euchre and five hundred party in the basement of the Church Wednesday evening at 8:15. All are invited to attend.

Miss Mildred Stewart left Sunday for Cleveland where she will take a medical course at Western Reserve.

Clyde Dawson entered O. S. U. at Columbus, Monday, where he will study medicine.

Miss Nettie Hopping who is teaching school in Wapakoneta spent a few days the past week with her sister, Mrs. George Parsons. The schools were dismissed Thursday and Friday on account of the County Fair held in Wapakoneta.

Mrs. Anna Warner has rented her property on North College Street to Mrs. Adeline Bassett and will spend the winter with her daughter Mrs. Howard Loe in Van Wert.

Mrs. Harry Littleton of Sabina spent the past week with Mrs. Fisher Littleton.

Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Adams motored to Indiana Saturday where they spent the week end.

Dr. C. M. Zeller attended the Dentist Association held in Louisville, Ky., the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Funderburg who have been visiting Mrs. J. H. Funderburg have returned to their home in Wabash, Ind.

COMMISSIONERS BUY ROAD MACHINERY

An Adams Grader has been purchased from the J. D. Adams Company of Indianapolis, Ind., at a cost of $374 and a Rex Tilting Drum Mixer from the T. J. Lane Company, of Springfield, Ohio for $225, according to an announcement made by the Greene Co., Board of Commissioners.

A resolution adopted by the board stated that "because of the urgent need in road construction it was found necessary to purchase a road grader and cement mixer for this work."

PAINTERSVILLE

Mr. Earl Dunlap and family of Middletown were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Fath.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pickering and daughter Kathryn Lucille spent the week end with Mr. H. E. Bales and family.

Mrs. G. W. Kalter of Dayton visited her brother Mr. C. E. Pickering and family the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolary and Mr. Roy J. Pickering and family of Eleazer were Sunday guests of Mrs. Evaline Wolary.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Fath motored to Cincinnati this week to attend the double wedding of their niece and nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonner Ellis entertained to dinner Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ellis of Dayton, Mrs. Alfred Hall of California, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rightsell of Xenia, Mr. Arthur St. John, Mr. Max St. John of Xenia and Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Carter. Mr. Howard Chestnut and family of Martinsville, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Lida Brown and daughter Ina.

Several from this place attended the Konklave at Xenia Saturday.

Rally Day will be observed at the church Sunday. The program will be rendered in the morning and music will be furnished by the Eleazer church in the afternoon. Come and bring well filled baskets.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett St. John and daughter, Corrine, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Fawley.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Maude Wilson Thursday, October 1.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR PARENT-TEACHER UNITS ARE MERGED

Merger of the Junior High School Parent Teachers Association and Senior High School Parent Teachers Association into what will be known as the Central High School P. T. A. was effected at a meeting of both organizations at the High School Monday.

The new organization, believed to be one of the largest in the state, will hold monthly meetings on the first Monday of every month.

Considerable other business was given attention at the organization meeting Monday. Funds of the Junior P. T. A. will be devoted to furnishing and equipping the Junior High School rest room in the west end of the building with first aid conveniences, it was decided. The balance in the fund will be turned into the newly merged organization fund.

The rest room is to serve as an emergency room to ease the already over-crowded conditions in the girls' rest room. The new rest room is conveniently located in the west end of the building and is easily accessible to grade pupils.

Since each merged organization already has officers, the task of assigning these officers to various duties will be taken up at an early meeting, it is said. Junior High officers will become assistants to officers of the Senior organization. Mrs. P. C. Bankard, president of the junior unit becomes second vice-president of the merged organization. Other junior officers were Mrs. L. S. Marshall, Mrs. Frank Spelman and Mrs. George Baldner.

NEW WAY PLANNED TO PRODUCE HELIUM

Berlin, Sept. 28.—New methods of producing helium gas in quantities adequate for the requirements of scientific research in Germany are proposed by Professor Kurt Peters, of Berlin University, in an article of "Natural Science," the German central organ for natural scientists.

"While it will be impossible to produce a quantity sufficient for the filling of an airship, Germany might easily produce from 250 to 500 cubic meters a year by thoroughly heating 500 tons of monazite available in Germany. German science need no longer depend on costly and scarce helium from the United States. Hitherto monazite has only been used for the production of nitrates and Thorium. One litre of helium can easily be obtained by heating thoroughly one kilogram of monazite sand. The temperature required for the process is about 1,000 degrees Celsius.

"Factories which hitherto chiefly produced thorium might easily produce helium as a cheap by-product instead of letting this costly gas out into the air, as they used to do. Helium obtained through this process is, unlike neon-helium won from the air, not mixed with neon and contains only negligible quantities of hydrogen and air."

THE GAZETTE

FARM

BILLS

Right now is the time for you to see us about your Farm Sale Bills. You'll be sure of a big crowd and pleasing results if you follow our method of Public Sale advertising.

See Us At Once

THE

Xenia Gazette & Republican

Xenia, Ohio

Phone 111.

IN RABBITBORO—Benny Is A Traveling Advertisement

ALBERTINE RANDALL

"CAP" STUBBS—Cap Guesses Right Again

By EDWINA

Social-Personal-Clubs

THE NICEST courtesy you can show your guests is to have their visits mentioned on this page. The nicest courtesy you can show your friends is to let them learn of your visit through this page when ever you go away. The Gazette and Republican consider it a courtesy whenever you turn in an item of any kind. PHONE 70

COUNTRY HOME IS SCENE OF CLUB PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haines graciously entertained members of the J. F. F. Club at their home on the Upper Bellbrook Pike, Monday evening.

The club meets once a month and Mr. and Mrs. Haines arranged a dinner party for the members, numbering twelve couples and their families. A delicious menu was served at a long table prettily arranged with flowers.

Contests featured the social time following dinner and prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolf, Mrs. Hugh Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schultz and Mr. James Hawkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fawcett were guests of the club members at the party. The next affair will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schultz.

CLASS OFFICERS ELECTED MONDAY

Officers of Mrs. V. F. Brown's Sunday School Class of Trinity M. E. Church were elected at the meeting held at the home of Mrs. Harold M. Owens, North King Street, Monday evening.

Mrs. Wilbur Street was elected president; Mrs. Zana Buttz, vice president; Mrs. O. J. Lowe, secretary; Mrs. Homer Spahr, assistant secretary; Mrs. John Baughn, treasurer and Mrs. Owens, treasurer of the birthday fund.

Refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed by the twenty members present.

REMINDED OF BIRTHDAY BY RELATIVES SUNDAY

Mr. Frank Bottorf was delightfully surprised Sunday when a company of relatives, called at his home on Tumbull Street, to remind him of his birthday. Twenty-six persons were entertained, including relatives from Resville, Sabina, Wilmington and Xenia.

A bounteous dinner was served at noon, the table being centered with a huge birthday cake, bearing Mr. Bottorf's name and date of his birth. The remainder of the day was spent with music and in a social way.

MARRIAGE TAKES PLACE ON MONDAY

Mr. Floyd A. Elliott, Jr., St. Louis, Mo., and Miss Hattie May Burke, East Market Street, were married by Rev. F. W. Stanton, pastor of the First M. E. Church, at Trinity M. E. parsonage, Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Stanton officiated in the absence of the Rev. V. F. Brown, who was out of the city. The single ring ceremony was solemnized. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will reside in Yellow Springs, where the bridegroom is employed.

SORORITY DELEGATES ELECTED BY CHAPTER

Miss Ethel Highley was elected business delegate and Miss Gladys Shadrach, social delegate to the district convention of Delta Theta Tau sorority at Celina, O., next Saturday and Sunday, at the meeting of Alpha Theta Chapter, Monday evening. Members of the society were entertained by Miss Shadrach and Miss Corinne Welch, at the latter's home on Roger Street.

Miss Irma Johnston was elected alternate to the convention. A refreshment course was served after the business meeting.

ATTENDS PARTY

Mrs. Wilbur Pancake, this city, attended a bridge party given by Miss Josephine Pancake at her home in South Charleston, Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Pancake shared honors at the affair with Mrs. Frank Geiselman of Wilmington and both were presented guest prizes.

The Misses Martha Van Tress and Kathryn Conklin and the Messrs. Bernard Haines and Erba Beason were entertained Sunday at the home of Miss Alma Mendenhall and Mr. Alan Mendenhall.

Mr. Conklin Diboll has returned from San Francisco, where he has been for the past four months, in the interest of the Technical Advisory Corporation, of Dayton. Mrs. Diboll has made her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clarke, West Main Street, during her husband's absence. They are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Diboll, Wilmington.

Mrs. Charlene Riley of Wilmington, O., and Miami, Fla., is spending a few days as the guest of Mrs. Sara H. Roberson, this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bone and family of San Benito, Tex., are visiting Mr. Bone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bone of Yellow Springs and his brother, Mr. C. A. Bone and family of North King Street.

Mrs. J. C. Bohl, Hillsboro, and Mrs. Herbert Sanders of Leesburg, spent Tuesday in Xenia with their sister, Mrs. C. A. Bone, North King Street.

Mrs. John Eavey and small daughter, West Church Street, have returned home from Denver, Colo., where they spent several weeks with Mrs. Eavey's sister, Mrs. Henry Dietz. Mr. Eavey preceded them home after a two week's visit in Denver.

Martha Brubaker, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwaid Brubaker, Yellow Springs, submitted to a tonsillectomy operation at the hospital of Drs. Madden and Shields, Tuesday morning.

Mr. Edgar Holton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chame Holton of West Market Street, left Tuesday morning for Cedarville where he will matriculate in Cedarville College. Mr. Holton is a graduate of the Class of 1925 at Central High School.

Member of the W. R. C. of Xenia are being invited to the home of Mrs. Marie Fuller, Dayton, Thursday, Oct. 1, for a social meeting. The guests will take a box lunch and go to Dayton on the 10 o'clock car.

INCREASE IN MILK PRICE EXPECTED TO BE ANNOUNCED SOON

Milk prices in Xenia may be boosted at least one cent a quart within several weeks.

Formal announcement of an increase has not yet been made but local milk company officials are holding to the belief that a shortage in milk may be expected to occasion an advancement in price.

Under a new schedule of a one cent boost, a quart of milk may cost twelve cents and a pint seven. Present retail prices for milk are eleven and six cents.

The increase is a natural one according to officials of the Springfield Dairy Products Company. A similar decrease could be expected next spring.

A sudden increase in price could be attributed to weather conditions. It is said and use of milk for ice cream cuts down the consumption of bottled milk.

PAVING PETITION WILL GET HEARING

A petition of a number of property holders living adjacent to the Cincinnati Pike to widen the road known as Inter-county Highway No. 6, in Xenia and Spring Valley Townships has been placed on file and will be given a final hearing October 7.

It is announced by the County Board of Commissioners. The petition is signed by more than twelve freeholders to be specifically assessed for the proposed improvement and sufficient bond has been furnished. A preliminary hearing will be given the petition September 30.

It is proposed to remodel the pike into a hard surface road from the corporation line of Xenia to the Warren County line, a distance of eight and one-half miles.

JEFFERSONVILLE HAS WATER SHORTAGE

Jeffersonville residents have experienced a water shortage during the past two weeks and a number have been forced to seek water from neighbors due to the wells on their own premises becoming dry.

In many instances persons are forced to carry water from neighboring wells some distance away. The situation is said to be due to the canning plant using a large quantity of water from its deep wells there.

Mr. and Mrs. Cullice went to house-keeping immediately on a farm near Cedarville.

MARRIED AT LOCAL PARSONAGE TUESDAY

Miss Anna Marsh, Yellow Springs, and Mr. Kenneth Eleker, Dayton, were married at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. F. W. Stanton, officiating.

The couple was attended by the parents of both parties. Mr. and Mrs. Eleker will reside in Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buelte and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simpson and family of Dayton, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Caseldine of Gladys Avenue.

Mr. Jack Weaver, of this city, spent Sunday in Urbana, Ohio, with friends.

Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Stanton had as their guests at the parsonage on West Market Street, over Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Thirkeld and son, Franklin, O. Mr. Thirkeld is the son of Bishop Thirkeld of the M. E. Church.

Mrs. N. M. Lington, Wilmington, who spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. John Dymond, South Monroe Street, returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Powell of Yellow Springs, spent Sunday with Mrs. Powell's brother and sister at Terre Haute.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dean of Newton Falls, O., were guests of Mrs. Adda Oglesbee, West Main Street, Sunday.

Miss Rose Berry and Miss Alice McGeeney spent Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in Cincinnati and saw "The Miracle" starring Lady Diana Manners at Music Hall.

Sunday School executive meeting of the U. B. Church will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mr. Charles Mock, Chestnut Street.

Mr. Alfred McNeff, of Fort Stanton, N. Mex., arrived in Xenia Monday for a month's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George McNeff, South Detroit Street.

Mrs. Fannie Moore, North Galloway Street, is spending a few days with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Caldwell, of Mansfield.

Mrs. Oscar Kelly who has been seriously ill for several weeks following a major operation, has convalesced sufficiently to be removed to her home in Point Pleasant, W. Va. Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. James Cowden and Miss Emily Ray accompanied Mrs. Kelly on the trip, made by motor.

SUCCESS OF FORMER GREENE COUNTIAN IS TOLD ROTARIANS

The story of the rise to success of Ed Brelsford, formerly of Bellbrook, from a pioneer to one of the wealthiest men in Florida, was told by John W. Prugh, Xenia realtor at the Xenia Rotary meeting, Tuesday noon.

Mr. Brelsford went to Miami years ago, built a shack and began to trade with the Indians. He increased the scope of his business ventures until he has made millions in the "land of sunshine."

Mr. Prugh spoke enthusiastically of Florida and said that "if you have money it is a good place to make an investment but if you don't have it stay at home."

Rotary "welcome signs" have been erected by the local club at all the highway entrances to the city it was reported by Frank McCurran, chairman of the sign committee at Tuesday's meeting.

The plan of the club to raise $250 to meet half of the deficit of the Xenia Recreation Association was discussed by club members. The Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs are joining in trying to raise $500 to carry out the work of the association.

The method chosen by the Rotary Club to raise the money will be devised by Dr. B. R. McClellan and Dr. W. H. Finley.

COLOR IT NEW WITH "DIAMOND DYES"

Just Dip to Tint or Boil to Dye

Each 15-cent package contains directions so simple any woman can tint soft, delicate shades or dye rich, permanent colors in lingerie, silks, ribbons, skirts, waists, dresses, coats, stockings, sweaters, draperies, coverings, hangings—everything!

Buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—and tell your druggist whether the material you wish to color is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods.—Adv.

One Thin Woman Gained 10 Pounds in 20 Days

Skinny Men Can Do the Same

That's going some—but skinny men, women and children just can't help putting on good, healthy flesh when they take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets.

As chock full of vitamins as the tasty, fishy tasting cod liver oil itself, but these sugar-coated, tasteless tablets are as easy to take as candy and won't upset the stomach.

One woman gained ten pounds in twenty-two days. Sixty tablets, sixty cents and money back if not satisfied. Ask Sayre and Hemphill or any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. Directions and formula on each box.

"Get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablet."—Adv.

Correct Glasses FOR Incorrect Eyes

It's the scientific measuring that makes our lenses give satisfaction.

Tiffany Jewelry Store Jewelers and Optometrists

Mrs. Chas. Davis

13 North Galloway Announces Fall-Winter line of Dress Goods Mary Rose Frocks (Ready to Wear) Bur-Tex Rugs All Colors—Sizes Lingerie and Hosiery

We examine eyes and fit glasses—that's all but we do it right.

We extend to you the hand of courtesy, prompt and efficient service. May we have the pleasure of serving you when in need of our services?

Wilkin & Wilkin
Optical Parlor

Over Woolworth's 5 and 10c Store

Xenia, O.

GAS BUGGIES—The Acid Test Of Friendship

By Bec

he has made millions in the "land of sunshine."

Mr. Prugh spoke enthusiastically of Florida and said that "if you have money it is a good place to make an investment but if you don't have it stay at home."

Rotary "welcome signs" have been erected by the local club at all the highway entrances to the city it was reported by Frank McCurran, chairman of the sign committee at Tuesday's meeting.

The plan of the club to raise $250 to meet half of the deficit of the Xenia Recreation Association was discussed by club members. The Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs are joining in trying to raise $500 to carry out the work of the association.

The method chosen by the Rotary Club to raise the money will be devised by Dr. B. R. McClellan and Dr. W. H. Finley.

MODISH MITZI—The Goofer Goes Riding With Mitzi (?)

By JAY V. JAY

The Goofer feels triumphant. And why not? Didn't Mitzi phone him and ask him to go riding with her? And Harry and Adelaide will be interested enough in each other to let him sit on the back seat with Mitzi undisturbed. Fortune smiles—for a while at least thinks the Goofer. Adelaide wears a three piece suit of tweed with a charmeuse blouse. The tweed coat is trimmed with badger. Mitzi is looking very charming in a double breasted coat with a shawl collar and cuffs of nutria.

For so short a while did Fortune smile on the Goofer. For only the short time that it takes to drive to the nearest country club. How did the Goofer know that the girls meant to go riding on horseback? The Goofer doesn't ride that way. Mitzi, of course, looks handsome in an English riding habit.

Alone! All alone. Only the motor car left. And of course the memory of Mitzi sitting very certainly and very smartly on her horse. Well, there will be the ride home. Mitzi didn't even notice that his tie and handkerchief match. The poor Goofer feels that he must make some sort of an impression. But how? You'll see another day. He has plans, he has!

EDITORIAL

The Evening Gazette and The Morning Republican published daily except Sunday at the Gazette Building, South Detroit Street, Xenia, Ohio, by the Cheek Publishing Company, Inc. Entered as second-class matter under act of March 3rd, 1879, at the Postoffice, Xenia, Ohio.

Member of "Ohio Select List" Daily Newspapers, Robert E. Ward, Inc. Foreign Advertising Representative, Chicago Office, No. 3 South Wabash Avenue, New York office, 501 Fifth Avenue.

NEW SUBSCRIPTION RATES	1 Mo.	3 Mo.	6 Mo.	1 Yr.
Green County	$4.00	$11.00	$21.00	$38.00
Zones 1 and 2	.45	1.15	2.15	4.00
Zones 3, 4 and 5	.50	1.30	2.40	4.50
Zones 6 and 7	.55	1.45	2.65	5.00
Zone 8	.60	1.60	2.90	5.50

By Carrier in Xenia, 15 Cents Per Week. Single Copy Three Cents.

Business Office—111 TELEPHONE Editorial Rooms—70

Advertising and Business Office 111
Circulation Department 70
Editorial Department 70

THE DAY'S BEST NEWS.

THE following Associated Press dispatch from Washington should be read with interest here as it bears out what we already know that business is getting better. It says:

"Labor in the United States was employed fully at the beginning of September and had a bright prospect for autumn, with full-time operation likely in nearly all industries.

The Labor Department, in making public tonight its monthly survey of employment conditions at the end of August, reported that textile and shoe manufacturers which have failed to share in recent months in the general prosperous condition were found to be moving toward full operation as September began.

Condition in the steel, building, and automobile industries, and opportunities in construction projects and harvest fields, were classed as most satisfactory.

Observations of business conditions, made by the Commerce Department, it also was announced, indicate that trade and industry proceeded at a more rapid pace in August than in the preceding month, or in August, 1924.

The departments index numbers, based on the condition in 1919 at 100, placed pig iron production in August at 106; steel production in 50 large cities at 136; mail order sales at 97, and ten-cent store sales at 184.

FOR UNIFORM MOTOR LAWS.

THE desirability of having uniform state laws on divorce and many other subjects is constantly being urged by publicists. The latest need is shown in the case of the laws governing the operation of automobiles. Not only has each of the 48 states its own set of laws for these vehicles, but the counties and cities and down to the villages and hamlets. This complexity of laws concerns speed, lights, the right of way, the use of the cut-out and parking restrictions. California has a complicated set of arm signals which every driver must use to tell when he is going to stop or to slacken speed or to turn a corner. Most states leave this particular matter to the driver's discretion.

On a 149-mile run over the Boston Post Road a writer found more than a score of different speed regulations. He marks the following suggestions for improving the present system, or rather lack of system. Standardization of speed limits for urban, suburban and country driving, so that in a fifty-mile run the motorist will not be subjected to a dozen or so different limits. Standardization of lights and colors for semaphore crossing signals so that motorists will be governed by the same colors everywhere. It is suggested red be the universal standard for stop and green for proceed. Uniformity and accuracy in words permitted to be shown on rear-end signals. Signals also advocated but not compulsory which bear the words "Right Turn," "Left Turn," "Slow," "Stop." Legal standardization of hand signals indicating left or right turn, stopping, etc.

With the rapidly increasing number of automobiles this matter of uniform state laws and city ordinances cannot be longer neglected. There must be a definite, easily understood system of traffic control. The result should be a reduction in the number of accidents on streets and highways.

WHAT IS SUCCESS?

SUCCESS of all worldly things, is most sought after. It is also of all worldly things probably the least often obtained. The chief barriers to its attainment are two simple rules: Plan your Work—Work your Plan. Simple rules, but to many insuperable—the unspanned chasm between the wagon and the star.

Planning means thinking, analyzing, systematizing—making things possible after the weaker-natures has pronounced them impossible.

Working means despising ease, forgetting hardships, laughing at discouragement—sticking until possibilities are turned into achievements.

Plan your work and work your plan are basic, fundamental, necessary—they are the universal laws of success.

There never was a time when concentrated thought and unstinted effort were not rewarded by a full measure of success and there never will be.

Wealth is not the measure of success, but love of work is the first symptom.

Just Folks

BY EDWARD A. GUEST

ETERNAL

Life is so brief a thing!
Summer crowds out the spring,
Itself to pass.
Autumn tints field and tree
With splendid majesty,
But soon, alas,
Winter hurls frost and snow
On all below.

Perchance the young green tree
Conceives its destiny
Green to remain.
Then reaching middle-age
Would hold that ampler stage
In spite of pain.
Fearing, with winter's frost
All will be lost.

So much to learn and see,
So much to know and be,
So brief the stay,
Mac wonders if the strife
To wrest some charm from life

Can truly pay.
Can he become sublime
In such a little time?

Worth and the things of grace
Know not the season's pace.
This much is sure
Since summer follows spring,
That age to which we'd cling
Cannot endure.
But for the soul shall be
Life through eternity.

GRAVE CLAIMS OWN

Akron, Ohio, Sept. 29.—The grave has claimed Summit County's champion grave digger. He was John W. Carle, 77, formerly a B and O engineer but a grave digger for the last ten years. "Carle was an artist at it," said Rev. Robert Davidson, county chaplain, who officiated at Carle's funeral. "He spent more time measuring the grave than digging it. He would not permit a casket to be lowered until he had satisfied himself that the grave was dug according to exact measurements." A son, Ernest of Woodlawn, Pa., survived Carle.

WHY NOT INCLUDE IN THE CURRICULUM OF OUR SCHOOLS A LESSON ON HOW TO CROSS STREETS?

1905-Twenty Years Ago-1925

It is understood that the Commercial Transit Company which has been operating an automobile line between Springfield and Jamestown via Cedarville has decided to discontinue the service.

Word comes here as we go to press that Jeffersonville, a town of a thousand inhabitants in Fayette County, is burning down.

The ordinance to increase the police force to six members was lost on its third reading at a meeting of city council Friday night.

W. O. Maddux is a candidate for councilman-at-large of the city of Xenia. Dr. Ben R. McClellan is also announced as a candidate for the position at the coming primary election.

Efficient Housekeeping

By Laura A. Kirkman

TOMORROW'S MENU

Breakfast
Oranges
Cereals
Creamed Dried Beef
Pop-Overs Coffee

Luncheon
Vegetable Soup
Peanut Butter Sandwiches
Lettuce
Apple Sauce Cocoa

Dinner
Lamb Stew (with Peas, Celery and Potatoes)
Escalloped Tomatoes
Lettuce
Chocolate Cornstarch
Coffee

ANSWERS TO INQUIRIES

Mrs. V. V.: "It would be interesting if some of your readers would send in their methods of pickling fresh fish or making a jelly of it."

Answer: Indeed it would. Let us hope that housekeepers who have such recipes will write them on a postcard and mail it to me, in care of this newspaper, to be published in our column.

Mrs. G. V.: Kindly publish a cheese cake recipe.

Answer: Cheese Cake: To one pound of either cottage cheese or cream cheese, add one half cup of granulated sugar and one half cup of bread flour. Now separate the yolks from the whites of four eggs, adding the beaten yolks to the cheese-flour mixture. Beat the four whites stiff, adding a pinch of salt to them, and fold these into the mixture. Also add three quarters of a cup of sweet cold milk, and spread the mixture on a greased paper in a flat cake pan. Cover the top with washed dried currants and sprinkle lightly with ground cinnamon. Slip the pan at once into a moderate oven and bake for about 20 minutes.

"New-at-Housekeeping: I would like to know two things: 1. How is flannel washed? 2. What shall I do to whiten cotton and linen wash dresses and men's shirts which have become yellow and grimy?"

Answer: 1. Wash flannels on a clear day. Have all the water of the same temperature; never rub them or use yellow soap. Dry as quickly as possible. In ironing, take care that the iron is not very hot. 2. To whiten clothes which have become yellow and grimy, make a mixture of clear lime water and turpentine in equal parts. Shake this mixture till creamy in a bottle, then use one cup of it to every boilerful of clothes. After boiling the clothes, wash with soap, rinse in clear water, and proceed as usual. To bleach old linen which has yellowed with age, boil it in strong indigo water or dissolve one half teaspoon of borax in one pint of that water and add this, when cool, to a gallon of warm water, soaping the linen before washing it in this borax water.

Tomorrow—Beneficial Fruit Drinks

EAST END NEWS

Mrs. JAMES HARRIS

Correspondent

TEL. 91-R

Mrs. Anna Simpson, of Indianapolis, in company with her son-in-law, Mr. Ben Thomas, attended the Allen reunion Sunday and were guests of relatives here also.

Mrs. Mamie I. Gaines, of East Market Street, who has been ill for about three weeks, seems to be not much improved.

Miss Beulah Tibbs and brother Willie, have returned from a three weeks' visit with their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Buford, Sand Springs, Okla.

The members of the Twentieth Century Club will please meet at the home of Mrs. Carrie E. Singer, East Church Street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Business of importance.

Miss Mary Andrews, of Detroit, Mich., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Carrie Washington, of East Second Street, and other relatives.

The Christian Church turned out en masse at the Anniversary Service Monday evening. Middle Run Church

BOILS

There's quick, positive, relief in

CARBOIL

At all Drugists—Money-back Guarantee

SHERIFF'S SALE

Saturday, October, 3, 1925

10 o'clock, a. m.

Court House, Xenia, Ohio.

Corner Lot in Zimmerman with residence thereon, .50 of an acre at intersection of Dayton and Xenia Pike and Fairfield and Bellbrook road. Appraised at $1600. Must bring at least 2-3 of appraisal. Fine location for business house or filling station. For further particulars see

Morris Sharp, Sheriff

Or Miller and Finney, Attorneys, Xenia, Ohio.

Today's Talks

THE LIVING DEAD

When a great personage comes into your heart he leaves something that is of himself and so never truly leaves.

I recall how the early life of Theodore Roosevelt thrilled me. And in later years, after meeting and talking to him and receiving his homely, human letters, he was more than ever enshrined as one of my heroes. Woodrow Wilson was another figure who won my admiration, though he was almost the very opposite of Roosevelt. But both men remain as giant figures that helped to make this a better world.

At this writing, however, I am thinking of one whom I knew intimately — one with whom I used to lunch two or three times a week over a period of years. He remains in my memory as one of the most heroic characters I have ever known because of the manner of his death.

His name was John M. Siddall. He was once a newspaper man. In early middle life he became the editor of The American Magazine and built up that magazine's circulation to around two million simply by emphasizing the everyday human side of people.

Four months before Siddall died he was told that he had cancer of the stomach and that if he would retire and live quietly he might live a year. But that wasn't Siddall. He went home as usual and began to prepare his magazine as far ahead as possible. He told no one of the sentence of death pronounced upon him. He chose to die in harness — in the front line of battle among the fighters.

At the age of but 49, in hardly four months from that time, he was among the silent heroes.

Months after the active brain had gone to sleep, Siddall's helpful, inspiring articles under the title, "Siddall Says," continued to appear. Even the physical work of the man lengthened out. And now, after over two years, I find myself thinking of this friend and inspiring American whose instituted plans continue to uplift people and teach them self-respect and courage.

Nothing matters much if we are not able to break up the gifts and accumulations of our years and pass them as nourishing food to those who need.

What is there that is more resplendent than to live — and give?

CHINAMAN FINED

Elyria, Ohio, Sept. 29.—Yee Bong, Chinese laundryman, was fined $5 and costs by Justice S. J. George here on a charge of failing to send Ye Wing, a 14 year old Chinese boy to school after being warned. Up to that time the Chinese pretended he could not understand English. When he heard the fine imposed upon him, however, he grew very indignant and threw the money on the floor as he stalked out.

CORN'S

Quick relief from painful corns, tender toes and pressure of tight shoes.

Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads

BIJOU THEATER

TO-NIGHT

A Thief In Paradise

With

Doris Kenyon, Ronald Colman, Aileen Pring

Plenty of Thrills and Entertainment in this Picture

Also

Wake Up

An Educational Comedy

WEDNESDAY MATINEE AND NIGHT

Welcome Home

A James Cruze Production

With

Lois Wilson, Warner Baxter, Luke Cosgrave

Mothers-in-law have had their day on stage and screen — now it's Father's day. And the old boy is a SCREAM!

FOX NEWS

ORPHIUM TONIGHT

HARRY CAREY

In

Beyond the Border

Supported by Mildred Harris, Jack Richardson and Tom Santschi

The fastest western you have ever seen. In 6 thrilling reels.

PATHE NEWS

WEDNESDAY NIGHT

BETTY COMPTON

In

"MIAMI"

A story of the people whose greatest worry is to find new methods of amusement. 7 reels.

"MASKED MARVEL"

Sunshine 2 reel comedy with plenty of good hearty laughs.

Admission 15c

EQUIP YOURSELF FOR COMFORT—NOT SLAVERY

Banish the days of dreaded toil. Washing machine, vacuum cleaner, electric iron and all the delightful cooking things that make your home life brighter.

EICHMAN & MILLER

ELECTRIC SHOP

52 West Main St.

Phone 652

That Overcoat

Will look 100% better if it is Dry

Cleaned—if you intend to wear

it this winter let us make a new coat out of it.

VALET PRESS SHOP

Carl M. Ervin, Prop.

33 So. Detroit St.

SCARBOROUGH SAYS SOUTH BEST PLACE FOR AVERAGE NEGRO

"The more I visit the congested parts of cities like Cleveland, Chicago, Philadelphia and New York, the more I am convinced that the best place for the average negro, if he is a farmer and if he is any degree successful as such, is the farming districts of the South," writes Dr. W. S. Scarborough, former president of Wilberforce University in "Current History Magazine."

"There he should remain and work out his destiny, he gains little by shifting the problem from the section where he is known to a section where he is unknown and where, as a rule, he will not find the sympathy and co-operation necessary for a successful future."

"Then, too, the presence of large numbers of negroes in the cities serves only to render more complex the problems of housing, of health, of education and of government; the resulting congestion also renders vice and crime more prevalent. It is a well-known fact that wherever negro people gather in large numbers, prejudice is intensified and the solution of the color problem is rendered more difficult and is longer deferred. Further segregation seems to be the inevitable out-come of negro migration northward and the situation grows more acute with increasing numbers. On the other hand, it must be admitted that the negro in the North has the ballot, freedom of speech, opportunities and privileges, educational advantages and the protection of the law, all of which advantages he does not have in our southern states. These are of priceless value and in the negro's mind, they counter-balance all else."

"I am well aware of his burdens and struggles on southern soil and those handicaps arising from southern prejudice; but in spite of all this, and undesirable as it seems to be, I believe that the negro can and will make a future for himself even among those of the Southland who seem now hostile to his progress."

FLEETS OF BICYCLE BRING CENTRAL HIGH STUDENTS TO SCHOOL

Although orders have been recently issued by the boards of education of Cleveland and Cincinnati schools prohibiting high school students from driving automobiles to school, no drastic action is needed in Xenia, according to Superintendent H. C. Pendry.

Students living on farms and outside the city avail themselves of the transportation system furnished and few drive their own autos to school, according to Superintendent Pendry. The situation never has been acute here.

Instead of using autos as a means of transportation, high school students in Xenia ride on bicycles, and fleets of bicycles are parked at the west side of the building every day. "We have sometimes contemplated erecting racks for these vehicles but the cost would be excessive," Superintendent Pendry said.

No serious accidents or traffic jams as a result of parked automobiles near the high school have occurred and the Cincinnati and Cleveland ruling are thought to have resulted from narrow and congested streets.

GEORGE PERRILL IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF CENTRAL SENIOR

Organization of the senior and junior classes of Central High School for 1925-26 has been effected with the election of officers in both student bodies. It is announced by Principal Spencer Shank.

George Perrill has been elected president of the Senior Class; Miss Barbara Little, vice president; William Need, secretary; Miss Elizabeth Stout, treasurer; and Miss Roxie Channell, instructor in commercial courses, has been selected class advisor.

An election of officers in the junior class resulted in the selection of Hubert Glass, president; Miss Evelyn Perrill, vice-president; Howell Huston, secretary; Miss Thelma Wagner, treasurer; Miss Emily Lewis, English teacher, was named class advisor.

The sophomore class was scheduled to hold a re-organization meeting on Tuesday afternoon when election of officers was to be held. The freshman class has not yet organized.

MRS. LUCY C. HAYNES DIES HERE MONDAY

Mrs. Lucy Catherine Haynes, 85, passed away at her residence on West Church Street, Monday night. A fall suffered last June 30 produced a shock to the system so severe that Mrs. Haynes was not able to rally from it.

Mrs. Haynes, who was before her marriage Miss Lucy Catherine Talbert, was born August 5, 1840 at Bellbrook, O. She was married in 1861 to Wesley Martin Haynes, bearing five children, two of whom are living. Mr. Haynes preceded her in death several years ago.

Despite her advanced age, Mrs. Haynes was unusually active in body and particularly keen of mind. When but eight years of age she joined the Methodist Church and since that time was identified prominently in church activities. A tither all her life, one of the last duties she performed on the Sunday before her death was to fill her church envelope. Mrs. Haynes was especially devoted to her missionary society.

She is survived by two daughters, Miss Fannie K. Haynes, teacher of Latin in Central High School, this city and Mrs. George E. Shroades, also of Xenia.

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock, at the residence, 224 West Church Street. The family requests that friends kindly omit flowers.

The Wife Who Wasn't Wanted

By GERTRUDE S. de WENTWORTH-JAMES

SYNOPSIS

It is Bob Manning's twenty-first birthday and a dance has been given for him at the Country Club. The hour is late and the party is breaking up. Diane Bledsoe is urging Bob to join a small company which is going to Calkin's Inn. Marjorie Patterson, who is in love with Bob, hears Diane's pleadings and is fearful lest Bob will yield to the temptress. She declines the invitation of another boy who offers to escort her home, saying she can accompany Mrs. Manning, Bob's mother.

CHAPTER IV—Continued

"Don't argue, Billy. You know I wouldn't if I could." And Marjorie calmly walked away from the discomfited youth to pause in the doorway as Diane grew more persistent.

"Come on, Bob. Be a good sport. I'll show you the time of your life at Calkin's Inn."

Marjorie's eyes rounded. It was as if she could not believe her ears.

"Oh, Bob!" she cried. The group on the porch turned. Gazing straight at Marjorie, Diane seemed to read a challenge. Suddenly she shrugged her shoulders and gave a derisive laugh.

"So that's why you can't go, Bob! I didn't know that I was trespassing. Don't let me interfere."

A loyal henchman, Theo lifted his heavy lids and grinned.

"If she has strings on you, don't let us lead you into mischief, old fellow."

Bob flushed and his temper flared as he stared back at Marjorie. But if that day he entered manhood's estate, youth has its pride.

"You must tell me, dear," persisted Eileen.

"Nobody has any strings on me," he declared hotly.

Diane giggled. It was an aggravating titter.

"Well, then?" she inquired of the universe.

Ignoring Diane and the rest, Marjorie moved towards them.

"Bob," she said with an air of proprietorship, "you can't go."

Again Diane's giggle was a bel-lows to Bob's temper. What right had Marjorie to dictate to him? Determination seized him.

"I will go."

"You can't go, Bob," insisted Marjorie, careless of the amusement of the group about them.

The commanding note in her voice seemed to exasperate him. Whether he was headed to Calkin's Inn or Hong Kong he would teach Marjorie that she could not boss him.

"Who'll stop me?" he blurted. "I'm going to do exactly what I please." And as the group moved towards Marjorie by.

For an instant it seemed as if she would follow him, but with an effort she restrained herself.

Bob, having had his way, took little comfort in it. Even at the edge of the porch, he hesitated as if half minded to turn. However that imp of mischief, Diane was not slow in sensing what was taking place.

"Come on, Bob, if you are going," she urged reaching forth from the car to tug at his sleeve.

Still he hesitated. Then, his jaw set. Climbing in beside Diane, they sped away amidst a chorus of merriment for which he had little heart.

And sadly hurt, Marjorie gazed after the departing car. Suddenly her lips trembled and a sob caught the pretty little party dress, which she had donned with such joyous anticipation, to quiver as the leaves of an aspen before a storm. But Marjorie would not surrender. Stubbornly, she fought back the tears which brimmed her lids.

In this, she was so successful that Eileen suspected nothing, when catching sight of her little neighbor from the door, she hurriedly joined her. Beautifully gown-ed and fairly radiant over the outcome of Bob's party was Eileen, tonight.

"Where's Bob?" she inquired promptly. "I've looked for him everywhere. I was certain I would find him with you. John can't get away to call for us, so Bob will have to take us home."

Her unhappiness hidden by the shadows of the porch, Marjorie did not trust herself to speak.

"Everybody enjoyed themselves, didn't they dear?" continued Eileen, enthusiastically. "Especially during that last dance. And the dinner! Demonet fairly outdid himself. Did you ever taste anything more delicious than that ice?"

Still Marjorie was silent.

"And those French pastries, did you try them?"

Marjorie had, but now sorrow had embittered their memory.

"The punch, you liked that too, didn't you?"

Engrossed as she was in the evening's delights, so one sided was the conversation that even Eileen marked it. Casting a sharp glance at Marjorie, she suddenly seized her by the shoulders and twisted her towards the lights.

"Marjorie, you are crying! What is the matter, dear?"

Stiffing a tell-tale sob, Marjorie shook her head.

"Tell me, is it about Bob? What has he done?"

Still Marjorie shook her head. She was no tattler tale.

"You must tell me, dear," persisted Eileen. "I'm his mother, I have a right to know. You both mean so much to me—maybe I call her—"

"Bob's gone," sobbed Marjorie suddenly.

"Gone—gone where?"

"To Calkin's and—with—with Diane Bledsoe."

"With Diane Bledsoe?" Disciple of care and prudence that you claim to be, Diane, this mother's tones were no compliment to you.

"To Calkin's Inn—alone?"

"No, not alone. They took a crowd and went to dance."

"No matter," said Eileen with decision. "I don't approve of Calkin's Inn. I don't approve of dances at this time in the morning. I don't approve of well—hurry and get your wraps. I'll send for my car. We'll stop and get Bob on our way home."

A few minutes later and they were off on the trail of Theo Bledsoe's car. It was plain that the more Eileen thought of Bob's trip to Calkin's Inn the less she liked it. And could she have glimpsed Theo's car at that moment she would have found warrant for even greater anxiety.

Half asleep, Theo was in no condition to drive. Under his drowsy guidance the car swerved so badly that even Diane was moved to objection.

"You drive, Bob," she urged. "Theo is driving like a boob."

Bob shook his head, lost in his own thoughts.

Again the car swerved crazily, and Diane grew determined.

"Theo," she cried, "you drive cuckoo. Let Bob take the wheel." And to Bob: "Change places, hon-ey. He'll ditch us sure and spoil the wonderful dance I'm going to have with you."

Reluctantly Bob shifted to Theo's place.

"There; this is better," whispered Diane, thrusting her arm about Bob's shoulders and snuggling up to him. "You drive as if there were some brains in your nut. Now show me what you can make the old bus do."

With his eyes fast upon the road ahead of them Bob never heeded her.

"Faster—faster—step on it!" urged Diane excitedly.

"We're hitting forty. That's enough."

"Forty? We're crawling!" cried Diane in scorn. "Feed her some gas."

Bob shook his head.

Now Diane drew even closer. The heavy perfume of her was in his nostrils, and the warm touch of her soft form against his body as she reached for the accelerator with her toe and the big car leaped forward.

(To be continued)

Riffians' Backs to the Wall

Slowly but surely the French and Spanish, aided by the American fliers in the Foreign Legion, are advancing against the rebel tribesmen in Morocco where a final assault is soon expected.

UNION EVANGELISTIC SERVICES START IN JAMESTOWN TENT SUNDAY, OCTOBER 4

Union Evangelical services arranged by the Ministerial Alliance of Jamestown, will begin Sunday evening, October 4 in a large tent on a lot in the rear of the United Presbyterian Church, of that village.

The Rev. William W. Shannon, Berwick, Pa., will be the evangelist. He has been engaged in Christian work twelve years, before that time being connected with the brewing interests and was a leading politician of his county, having been representative of the Bois Penrose organization. He was the delegate-at-large to several of the national conventions.

The Rev. Mr. Shannon was for a time president of the city council, then the mayor of his home city. It was during his incumbency that he was converted in a union evangelistic service. Immediately he served all connection with the organizations with which he was connected and became business manager for one of the outstanding evangelists of the country.

During the World War, the Y. M. C. A. engaged the Rev. Mr. Shannon to visit the army camps and speak to "the boys." In this capacity he visited nearly all of the great cantonments, to some of them making a number of visits, crossing and re-crossing the continent several times. After the armistice, the Business Men's Council of the Pocket Testament League, invited Mr. Shannon to become field representative of the organization to establish Pocket Testament Leagues in larger cities. In connection with this work he conducts evangelistic meetings.

The Rev. Mr. Shannon and Charles H. Wieand, Aurora, Ill., who conducted song services during a series of meetings in Xenia, recently, are conducting meetings in Buffalo, under the auspices of the Buffalo Council of Churches, this being the seventh meeting in the same city within sixteen months.

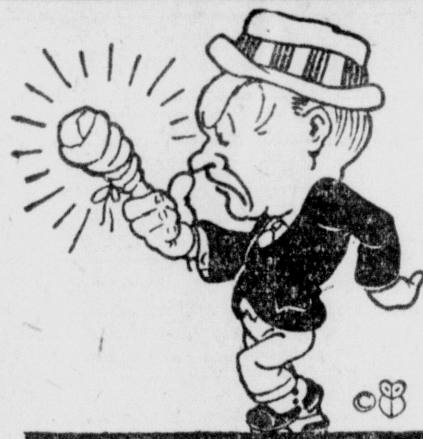

Mr. Wieand has had a large experience in directing song services having served with some of the strongest evangelists. Frequently his chorus choirs have numbered more than 1,000. He was also in war work, and has since assisted in twenty-one different campaigns in the State of Ohio.

SEED IN NOSTRIL

Martins Ferry, O., Sept. 29.—An unusually large sunflower seed got stuck in the nostrils of Albert Shriver, Jr., a young son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shriver, while he was playing. Dr. John L. Hervey was called and obliged to chloroform the boy in order to remove the obstruction.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS
THE DIAMOND BRAND
Ladies! Ask your Druggist for Chichester's Diamond Brand Pills in Red and Gold metallic boxes, sealed with Blue Ribbon. Take one after each meal. Always get the Diamond Brand. Ask for CHICHESTER'S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS for 25 years known as Best. Sold Everywhere. SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

I'll Fix No

More Tires!

Not While

"KOHL, THE TIRE MAN" IS SO HANDY
IF IT'S TIRE TROUBLE—TROUBLE US
The Xenia Vulcanizing Co.

VICTORY THEATRE, DAYTON, MATINEE SAT.

3 Days Beginning Thursday, Oct. 1

A WHOLE EVENING OF MAGIC MYSTERY AND ILLUSIONS

L-LAWRENCE WEBER
PRESENTS

Eves. 50c to $1.50. Box Ex. $2.00 Matinee, 50c, 75c and $1.00

CENTRAL CAFETERIA PATRONAGE BIGGER THAN EVER IS WORD

Despite good weather the first three weeks of school, patronage of the Central High School cafeteria has increased noticeably from other years, according to Superintendent H. C. Pendry. An average of nearly 140 students are taking their noon-day meals there on school days, while on rainy days the patronage increases to nearly 200, it is said.

Appetites of the boys and girls are being appeased with wholesome food every day at an average cost of twenty cents. Many articles on the daily menu are much cheaper than in other years.

The cafeteria is located in the basement of the high school and is in direct control of Superintendent Pendry. Mrs. Pearl Wolf has direct charge of the preparation of food as in other years and is assisted by several grade school girls.

As a result of the successful drive for funds for the opportunity school waged by the P. T. A., pupils of this school will be furnished mid-day meals beginning Wednesday at a much lower cost, it is said. An appetizing lunch will be furnished for fifteen cents.

The cafeteria has been newly decorated and Superintendent Pendry is enthusiastic over the showing made so far this year.

OHIO COUNCIL OF CHURCHES TO MEET

Columbus, Sept. 29.—The co-operative work of sixteen Protestant denominations through the Ohio Council of Churches will be reviewed and the further program will be outlined at the annual meeting of the council to be held here Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 12 and 13.

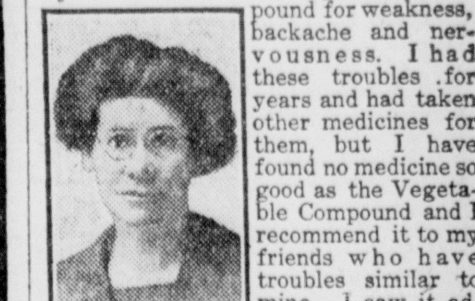

The principal feature of the two days' program will be the seventh annual meeting of the assembly, the governing body of the Council of Churches, composed of 200 representatives of affiliated denominations and of local church councils.

Harvey S. Firestone of Akron, president of the Ohio Council of Churches will deliver his annual presidential address at the meeting.

SICK WOMEN SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED

Letters Like This Prove the Reliability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Turtle Lake, Wisconsin. — "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness, backache and nervousness. I had these troubles for years and had taken other medicines for them, but I have found no medicine so good as the Vegetable Compound and I recommend it to my friends who have troubles similar to mine. I saw it advertised and thought I would try it and it has helped me in all my troubles. I have had six children and I have taken the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before each one was born, for weakness, vomiting, poor appetite and backache, and again after childbirth because of dizzy headaches. It is a good medicine for it always helps me. I have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills for the last eight years for constipation." — Mrs. MABEL LAPOINT, R. F. D. No. 1, Turtle Lake, Wisconsin.

In a recent canvass, 98 out of every 100 women say they were benefited by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Fall-Winter 1925-1926

Our line of imported and domestic woollens is now complete and it is the finest we have ever shown. Before you select your fall suit call on us and look over our line of samples. The best dressed Men wear custom tailored clothes.

Kany the Leading Tailor

N. Detroit Street.

Opp. Courthouse, upstairs

The early bird finds earlier birds at The Criterion

So many men are coming early to avoid the rush that there has been a rush to see the new Fall Suits ever since they arrived in Xenia.

In other words—the early bird has got to get up before breakfast to have the field all to himself.

As soon as 8 a. m. these Michaels-Stern Fall suits are displayed to men who were up at 7—and in dozens of cases we are selling in September new suits to men who usually wait until Thanksgiving.

Set your alarm for tomorrow—We're all set for you today.

Michaels-Stern New Fall Suits and Top Coats.

$30 to $45

Others from $25 to $55.

New Fall Shirts

Fall Stetsons

Free Votes on The Willys-Knight Coupe-Sedan and nine other cash prizes.

The Criterion Value First Clothiers.

22 S. Detroit St.

Xenia, Ohio.

SOIL SPECIALISTS WILL BE IN OSBORN

Greene County Farm Bureau members are urged to pack up their soil troubles in an old tin can and take them for analysis to the soil specialists and crop experts who will be on the Soil Laboratory Train which will stop at Osborn, Thursday, October 1, from 1:30 p.m. to 6 p.m.

The Ohio State University Soils Department and Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station are co-operating with the New York Central Lines in the operation of this train.

Each farmer will be given an opportunity of an interview with one of the soil specialists after having his soil samples analyzed and classified according to type, a limit of two samples from any one farm being made. There will also be exhibits of more than twenty fertilizer materials with their value for different crops, and liming materials from ten companies in Ohio will be on exhibit.

Lectures on special subjects will be given and motion pictures shown on the results obtained from liming and growing clover. Radio lectures and market reports will be received continuously.

These and other interesting and instructive features will make up the train.

RELEASED ONE WEEK THEN BACK IN JAIL

Exactly one week after he had been released from the County Jail, William Naus, of near Alpha, was arrested Monday evening by Sheriff Morris Sharp on a charge of operating an automobile while intoxicated. Naus is being held in the County Jail pending arraignment Tuesday afternoon in Probate Court before Judge S. C. Wright on the charge.

Naus was arrested on the Dayton and Xenia Pike after he had driven a truck into a ditch. The arresting officer found a half bottle of alcohol which Naus had been drinking, he said.

One week ago Naus was convicted of intoxication and fined $25 and costs.

CAMERA NEWS

One Room Shelters Twelve

HOUSES TWELVE. INTL.

This typical mountain home in the mountains of Kentucky, with only one little window for air and light, is all that a family of twelve calls home. But the grownups and little ones within its walls seem happy and contented with their lot in life.

Up and Over to Victory

VOX POPULI II WINS. INTL.

A beautiful picture, especially to those that backed the aged gelding, was Vox Populi II, as he cleared the water jump at the Aqueduct, N. Y., course, and scampered home to an easy victory.

In the News of the Day

GRINDELL MATTHEWS.

A. PAULEN

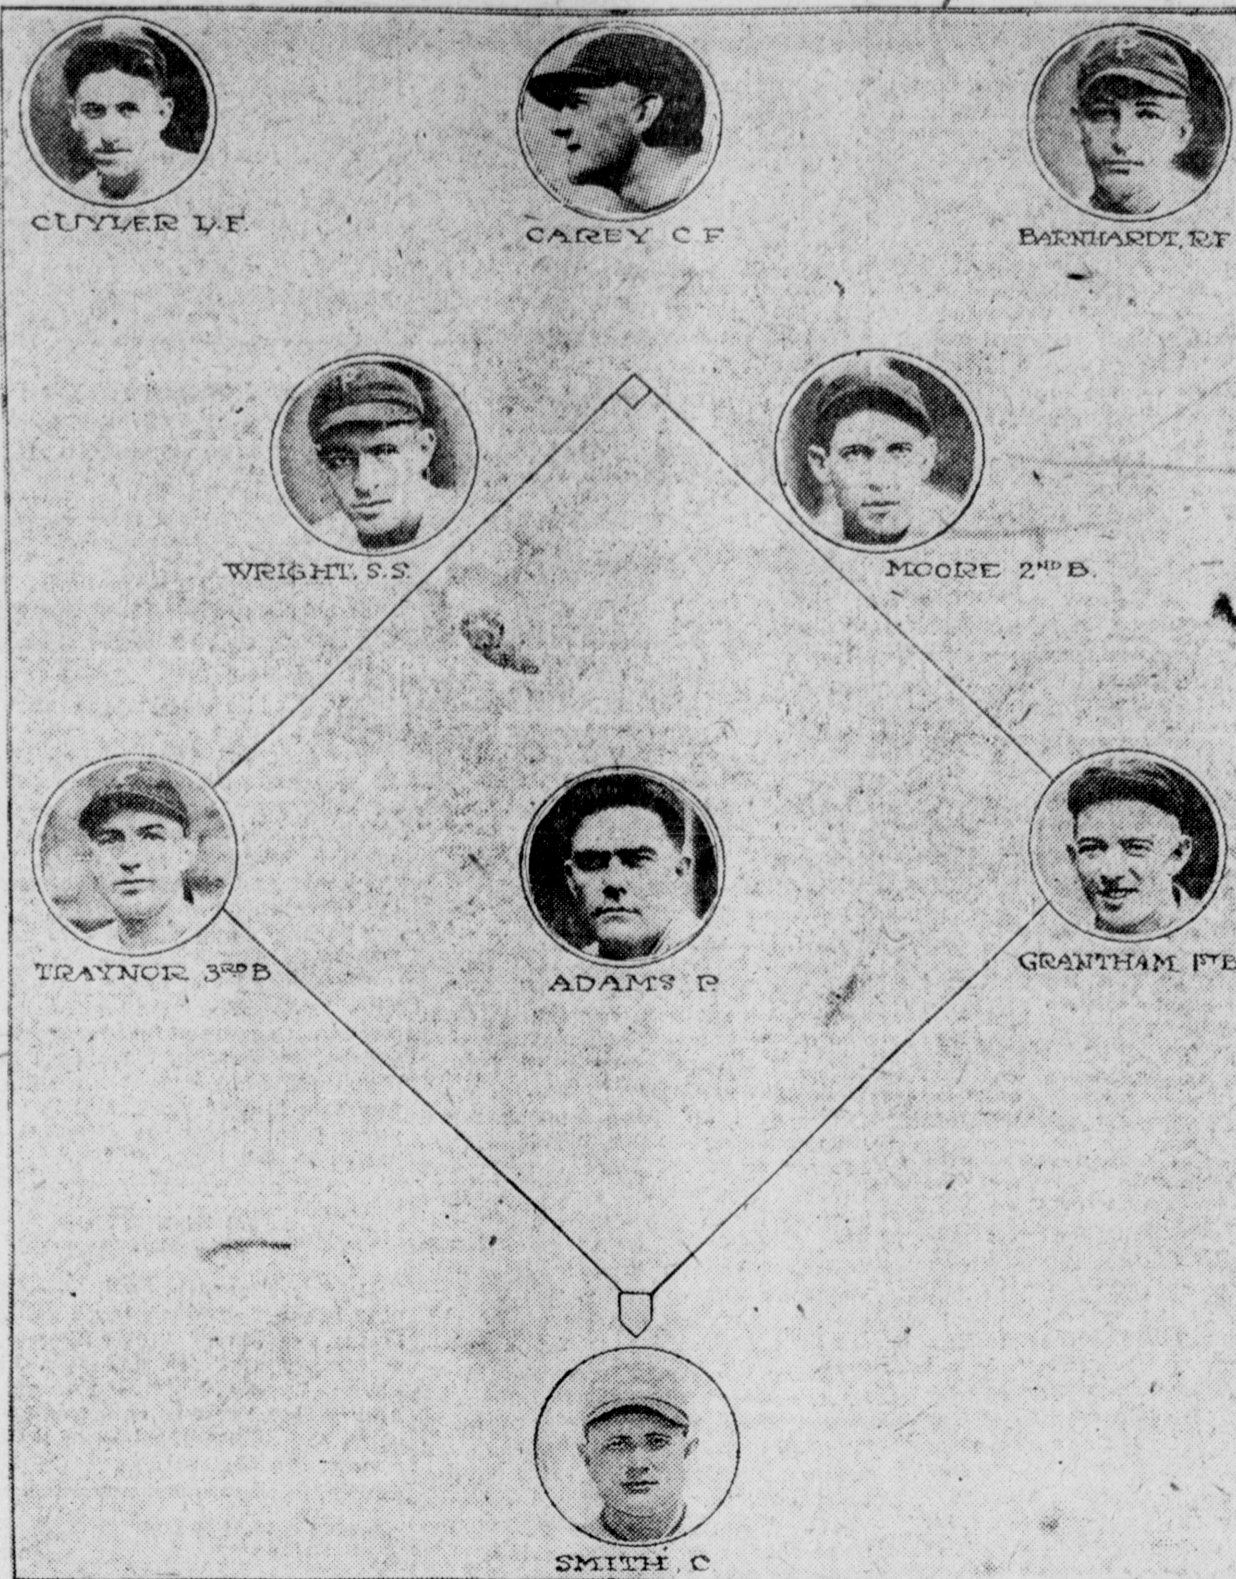

HENRY LANE WILSON

MRS. RICHARD BENNETT

Grindell Matthews, of England, inventor of the "death ray," has taken up his permanent residence in the United States, where he will continue his research work. A. Paulen, 400-meter runner of Holland, is here to meet the American cracks. Henry Lane Wilson, of Indianapolis, is being pressed as Ambassador to Japan. Mrs. Richard Bennett, former wife of the "stage's perfect husband," smiled on her return from Europe on the report Bennett was engaged to Mrs. Thelma Converse, sister of Mrs. Reginald Vanderbilt.

Pirates Rest as They Face World's Series

The Pittsburgh Buccaneers have not been going any too well the last few days, but Manager McKechnie expects the team will be fit as a fiddle when they face their American league adversaries for the world's title. Here are the stars of the Pirates and the line-up will be seen in at least one of the games, with Babe Adams in the box.

Senators' Veterans on Edge

There should be little semblance to stage fright if the Senators battle in the world's series, for the team knows what it means to fight for the baseball blue ribbon which they won last year. This is the way the team will most likely line-up when play is called in the opening game. Walter Johnson, as brilliant as ever, is expected to smoke 'em over for the champions.

Their Maulies Their Fortune.

BATTLERS SIGN FOR BOUTS. INTL.

These peaceful looking youths, tigers in the ring, signing for their battles in New York, October 5. Seated are Johnny Dundee, aged veteran of the padded mits, who was world's featherweight champion and still claims the title; Jimmy DeForest, promoter, and Paul Berlenbach, world's light heavyweight champion. In back are Sid Terris and Jack Bernstein, who will hurl gloves at each other, and King Solomon, who will fight Berlenbach.

Hindenburg Sees Maneuvers

VON HINDENBURG AND TROOPS. INTL.

Not as President, but as Field Marshal did Von Hindenburg visit the German army in its fall maneuvers at Mecklenburg, where the small force went through its paces for his special benefit.

Norse Plan Arctic Flight

NORSE DIRIGIBLE. INTL.

All the comforts of home, with living and sleeping rooms, are contained in the dirigible now being built in Italy for Norway, which will attempt a flight to the North Pole in the Spring.

ECKERLE AWARDED CONTRACT TO PRINT ELECTION BALLOTS

Contract for printing approximately 75,000 ballots needed in the county for use of voters at the municipal elections November 3, was awarded the Eckerle Printing Company by the board of elections at its meeting Monday night. The Eckerle bid was the only one submitted. No other business was transacted by the board.

Of the 75,000 ballots needed for the elections, it is estimated nearly 38,000 will be used in Xenia alone.

The large number of ballots required is caused by the increased number of tickets to be voted upon and is not attributed to any expected large election vote, it is said.

Xenia voters will be handed seven tickets at the election including a state ticket containing three amendments, township ticket, city commission ticket, board of education ticket, school board proposed extra tax levy, judicial ticket and proposed amendment to the city charter.

Officials of the election board announced the time limit for submitting extra tax levies and bond issues to be voted upon at the election in twenty days before the election.

Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of America, will hold its regular weekly meeting Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock in the American Legion rooms, it is announced by Scoutmaster R. H. Kingsbury. Troop No. 2 will hold its meeting Thursday night at the same hour.

Members of both troops are being instructed in first aid and signmaking work. Dr. H. C. Messenger will attend the Troop No. 1 meeting Wednesday night and give Scouts additional first aid instruction, it is announced.

Scoutmasters Kingsbury and J. J. Stout plan to take a delegation of local Scouts to Dayton Friday night to witness the court of honor proceedings to be held at the old Dayton Court House. The meeting will be called at 7 p.m. Merit badges will be distributed to deserving Dayton Scouts.

CHINESE OBJECT TO NAME OF "CHINA PIG"

Salon, Ohio, Sept. 29.—The proprietor of the "China Pig," a new refreshment stand east of here on the Chestline-Mansfield road, was a wiser man today. He had a lesson in international relations that he will not forget in a hurry. Six husky Celestials on their way by automobile to Cornell University were dumbfounded when they spied the sign—the "China Pig." Such a deliberate insult to their country! The proprietor found himself in the center of a Chinese mob. After some rapid fire jabbering, it finally dawned on the road merchant that the orientals were objecting to the sign.

"China America's friend. Sign him heap big insult," one of the yellow visitors explained.

The proprietor took the sign down and then the Chinese stayed for a meal.

ELEAZER

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Maddux and daughter, Christine, were the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hartsook.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stout of Wilmington were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Oglesbee, over the weekend.

Rally Day was observed at an all-day meeting Sunday at the Eleazer Church. The Ladies' Aid served dinner in the basement.

Mr. and Mrs. Bickford's two nieces of Illinois who were their guests for a few days have returned home.

Miss Sally Conklin of Xenia is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Anderson.

Mrs. James Middleton, who has been ill for two weeks, is improving slowly.

Mr. Tip Hupman of West Carrollton, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hartsook.

Ill in Paris

JOHN JACOB ASTOR, JR.

John Jacob Astor, 6 of New York, heir to a part of the Astor millions, is ill from typhoid fever in the hospital at Neuilly. His mother, Mrs. W. K. Dick, is by his side.

BRINGING UP FATHER

© 1925 BY INT'L FEATURE SERVICE, INC. Great Britain rights reserved

9-29

MOST POWERFUL WARSHIP IS LAUNCHED BY GREAT BRITAIN

Walker-On-Tyne, Eng., Sept. 28.—The Nelson, the most powerful warship afloat, has just been launched here. Her sister-ship the Rodney, is now building at Birkenhead.

These two ships represent the only two battleships now under construction throughout the world. They typify the last word in naval efficiency and at the same time they will be the last battleships constructed in any shipyard in the world until the period set apart among all nations under the Washington Convention for the cessation of battleship building.

The Washington agreement imposed limitations. These new vessels will not exceed 35,000 tons in weight, and they will not be as big as the four British battleships under construction and subsequently scrapped under the Washington Convention but nevertheless they will be the most formidable fighting ships in existence.

HELP SUPERIOR TO ALL

Notwithstanding all limitations, the best brains in England have been busy on these ships, and it is safe to say that no vessel in the world will be capable of tackling them.

Their fighting strength is such that they carry nine guns of the 16-inch calibre. These weapons are something like 70 feet in length and will fire projectiles of one and one-fourth tons weight.

The original dreadnaughts of twenty years ago fired projectiles of just one-quarter of this weight—and at that they were thought to be miraculous—so the fighting strength of the present ships can be clearly recognized.

The total broadside fire of the ships will be ten tons of metal which can be fired twice a minute. Twenty tons of metal a minute—that is the "Big Noise" that the Newcastle constructors are to put into the water.

Their speed has not been disclosed, except that it exceeds any battleship taking the water before. In naval circles it is put at 27 knots.

BOTH HAVE "DOUBLE SKIN"

In defense all the lessons of Jutland and other battles of the late war have been taken into account, and the Nelson and the Rodney will outstrip anything else afloat in their resistance to gunfire and torpedo attack.

Both have the "doubleskin" which was added to the Renown, Repulse and Hood battle cruisers to resist torpedoes and both contain many other novelties about which nothing will be said.

Naval people call them the "Hush-Hush" ships in construction; the "Dash-Dash" ships in defense and the "Smash-Smash" ships in attack.

The price of each will range between thirty-three and thirty-four million when completed.

Among the thousands who have publicly expressed indebtedness to Tanlac for normal weight, health and strength, is A. R. White, who recently said:

"The foundation for my present excellent health was laid by Tanlac. For months I had been run-down. I had lost all enjoyment for food and suffered great discomfort from indigestion. My liver was sluggish and that tired feeling was on me all the time.

"Three bottles of Tanlac relieved my troubles and started me off with a system so thoroughly toned up and renewed that I soon found myself feeling like a new man."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills for constipation; made and recommended by the manufacturers of Tanlac.

TANLAC FOR YOUR HEALTH

CUTICURA

Helps Business Girls

To look their best. The regular use of Cuticura Soap, assisted by touches of Cuticura Ointment when required, keeps the complexion fresh and free from eruptions, the hair live and glossy and the hands soft and smooth. Cuticura Talcum is fragrant and refreshing, an ideal toilet powder.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25c. and 50c. Tanlac 25c. Sold everywhere. Sample each free. Address: Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. 107, Malden, Mass.

WANT CANING WORK

Through their teacher, Miss Evelyn McGiven, pupils of the Opportunity School, are in search for work in chair caning. As a part of their school training, the handicapped children are taught various trades, including the caning, with the aim of enabling them to earn their livelihood after leaving school.

Anyone having chairs to cane can get in touch with Miss McGiven and the work will be completed with neatness and dispatch. The work is done with flat reed and also hole caning.

Radio Programs

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29.

KDKA, Pittsburgh (309.1) 7:30 p. m., kiddies; 8:30-10:30, music.

WEAR, Cleveland (389.4) 7 p. m., organ; 8-1 a. m., music.

WWJ, Detroit (352.7) 12:05 p. m., 7, music.

WKRC, Cincinnati (326) 10 p. m., music; 10:30, talk; 11, music.

WQJ, Chicago (447.5) 3 p. m., talks; 7-1 a. m., music.

WSAI, Cincinnati (326) 7:45 p. m., chimes; 8-9, music.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

KDKA, Pittsburgh (309.1) 7:30 p. m., kiddies; 8:30, concert.

WEAR, Cleveland (389.4) 7 p. m., banquet.

FOR CLASSIFIED ADS CALL 111

Say "Bayer"—Insist!

For Colds Headache Pain Lumbago Neuralgia Rheumatism

Safe Accept only a Bayer package

which contains proven directions

Handy "Bayer" boxes of 12 tablets

Also bottles of 24 and 100—Druggists

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monocetaceticacid of Salicylicacid

There Would Be Confusion and Uncertainty

if your Will could not be located in the event of your death. Put this important paper where it can easily be found when needed. A box in our Safe Deposit Vault is the safest and most convenient place.

$2.00 RENTS A BOX FOR A YEAR

Commercial and Savings Bank Xenia, Ohio SERVICE-SECURITY

PUBLIC SALE

Having changed my system of farming, I will sell at public sale at my residence on South Charleston pike, 3 miles north of Jamestown, on

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1925

Commencing at 10 o'clock the following chattels:

3—HEAD OF HORSES—3

1 bay mare 4 years old; 1 black mare, 4 years old; 1 yearling colt.

8—HEAD OF CATTLE—8

1 cow, 5 years old with calf by side; 1 cow, 2 years old with calf by side; 3 steers, year old; 1 heifer year old. The above cattle are all Shorthorns.

78—HEAD OF HOGS—78

78 head of good feeding shoats weighing from 60 to 150 lbs. Double immuned.

FARMING IMPLEMENTS

3 good wagons with box beds; 2 wagons with hay racks; 1 Kentucky grain drill (12-7 disc.) 1 8-ft McCormick binder; 1 new International manure spreader; Cassidy gang plow; Oliver Sulky plow; 1 two-row corn cultivator; 2 single row corn cultivators; 1 5-shovel cultivator; Acme harrow; land roller; hay tedder; spring wagon; 2 farm sleds; self feeder; work harness; steel drums; baskets and other articles too numerous to mention.

TERMS MADE KNOWN ON DAY OF SALE

J. E. LEWIS

Col. Carl Taylor, Auct.

M. K. Ritenour, Clerk

TRAFFIC CLAIMS SIXTY ONE VICTIMS

Columbus, O., Sept. 29—Traffic toll

for Franklin County this year includes sixty-one deaths up to today. The latest victim, Albert Yates, colored, died Monday night from injuries received in an auto accident here Sunday morning. Mrs. Frances Tolliver, also colored, died from injuries sustained in the same accident.

Ralph Boyer, 23, who drove the car, is being held by Police pending investigation.

TELEPHONE YOUR WANT ADS

LAST CALL Only 4 More Days MOSER'S GIGANTIC PRICE SLASHING SHOE SALE

Never before were the people of Greene County offered shoes at such tremendous savings.

As our sale lasts only 4 more days we are offering the people of Greene County an opportunity to purchase their FALL and WINTER FOOTWEAR at astonishing SALE PRICES.

To uphold our reputation of great value giving, we have included our entire stock in these wonderful values for a QUICK and SENSATIONAL SALE.

Don't Miss This Big Remaining 4 Day Event

Attention! Women!

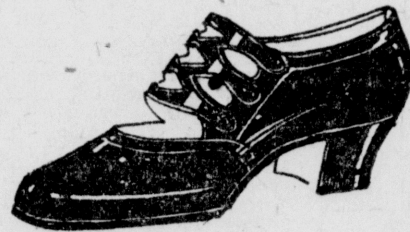

One Big Lot Strap Slippers. Short Lots. In Patent, Gun Metal, Tan and White: Cuban and Low heels. $5.00 to $10.00 Values.

Anniversary

Price

77c

Extra Special!

Newest Fall Styles in Patent, Black Kid, Gun Metal and Tan. One Strap, Two Button 5-Bar, One Strap Buckle and 3-Eyelet tie.

Anniversary

Price

$4.17

MEN!

Short Lots Stetson, J. P. Smith, Walk-Over and other Tan Oxfords. $6.00 to $12.00 Values.

Anniversary Price

$2.77

WOMEN! ONE BIG LOT STRAP SLIPPERS

In Patent, Satin, Gun Metal and Tan, including the new "Cross-Word" with Spanish, Cuban and Low Heels. $5.00 to $10.00 Values.

Anniversary Price

$1.77

Extra! For Women

Strap Slippers in Satin, Patents, Suede Black and Tan Kid, Cuban and Low heels. Newest styles $6.00 to $10.00 Values.

Anniversary

Price

$2.77

Special! For Children

One lot Misses' and Children's Patent Leather and Tan Combination Strap Slippers. $3.50 and $4.00 Values.

Anniversary

Price

$1.77

Men's Work Shoes

Men's Wolverine Horsehide Work Shoes. The Real Shoe for Fall and Winter wear. As near waterproof as leather can be made. Values up to $5.00.

Anniversary

Price

$3.17

REMEMBER! WITH EACH 10c WORTH OF MERCHANDISE YOU GET A VOTE ON THE WILLYS-KNIGHT COUPE-SEDAN AND 9 OTHER CASH PRIZES WHICH ARE TO BE GIVEN AWAY DECEMBER 24TH.

MOSER'S SHOE STORE